Washington Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, N. C., August 13.—Among the many social functions of the past week, one of the most enjoyable was an informal reception and dance, given at the Country Club at Washington Park, by Miss Katie Blount Bragui, in honor of her friend, Miss Pattie Walser, of Lexington, who is visiting relatives in the city. The guests were met at Fowles' dock, by the gas boat Cora, under the command of Captain W. F. Farrell, and taken down the river to the club, where they were cordially received in the club bungalow by the hostess and her guest of honor, Miss Walser. The dance was given in the club dancing pavilion over the water.

Miss Charlotte Nicholson is entertaining a small number of friends at a house party at her home on West Main Street. The following are her guests: Misses Penelope Clark, of Littleton, and Germa Clark, of Enfield.

Miss Carrie Simmons delightfully entertained at cards on last Friday morning in honor of her guests, Misses Cora and Cora Christi, Tex., Miss Forbes, of Greenville, and Miss McCullers, of McCullers. The handsome home, on the corner of Main and Harvey Streets, was tastefully decorated. Delicious fruit punch was served in the hall. For two hours the guests enjoyed six-handed euchre, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Simmons again entertained on Wednesday evening, at an informal dance in honor of her guests. Music was furnished by an orchestra, and the evening proved quite a success. About sixty guests attended.

Misses J. and P. B. Myers entertained at bridge on last Friday evening in honor of Misses Geer and Knight, of Baltimore, who are the guests of Mrs. J. K. Hoyt, in this city.
